 NOVEMBER 2007 BULLETIN ***

President's Corner- November is here and with that I would like to say I have enjoyed serving your Club as President this year. Election time is here. We ask that all voting members come out and vote. Nominations will be made from the floor at this months meeting. Voting will be in December. Results will be read at the December Regular Meeting.

Finally, it has cooled off. Our lakes are down due to lack of rain. Hopefully soon they will be back to normal with a few big downpours. Please help keep our club grounds at both facilities clean. Lets all remember to pick up after ourselves when we leave to go home, every little bit helps. If you have time, please come out on November 11th for our grounds work party. All have a great time.

. -Thank you- Terry Grizzle, President

AWRSC LOUNGE
